

P. George Andrew Wichland (1901-1992)
USA - Provincia di Baltimora.

Fr. George Wichland (1901-1992), a Redemptorist missionary and friend to anyone in poverty. Most noted for his labors in feeding Baltimore's hungry, he was also a missionary in Paraguay in the 1930s. He is shown here in action distributing groceries at the church of St. James the Less in Baltimore, conversing with Redemptorist Father General Pfab in May 1975 at the food pantry, and in younger days with a couple of canine friends. Father Wichland was often described by contemporaries as a saint, but he thought of himself as simply a good neighbor.

